Presidents Report from Switzerland

Werner Berger – Agrotec Suisse

Amsterdam, October 7th 2021

Market situation

- Good demand, high prices, uncertain delivery times
- New law 2022: in order to fulfil the ecological performance certificate ÖLN and receive subsidies, manure has to be spread close to the ground by drag hose or drag shoe

The two extreme initiatives for clean drinking water and against pesticides

... but a tough fight

June 13, 2021: Swiss voters say “NO”

Over 60% of Swiss voters have thrown out a pair of initiatives aiming to ban the use of synthetic pesticides in the country.

June 13, 2021 - 19:56

Domhnall O'Sullivan

After months of heated campaigning, it was a clear “no” on Sunday for the proposals, which would have made Switzerland an organic farming pioneer by becoming the first European country to ban products like artificial weedkillers and fungicides.
